DGME SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETES MIRPS FUNDED PROJECT

On March 26 of this year, the General Directorate of Migration and Foreigners (DGME) of the Republic of Costa Rica presented improvements and modernization of the Refugee Unit's platform. In Guatemala, the project “Facilitating the Labor Inclusion of the Population Applying for Refugee Status and Refugees in Guatemala” will begin implementation in the first half of April. The project aims to strengthen employment opportunities and promote economic autonomy for the refugee population in the country.

In Honduras, the Human Rights Secretariat (SEDH) will submit the Final Report of the project “Strengthening the governmental response to assist internally displaced persons due to violence.” A presentation of the project’s main findings, lessons learned and the actions taken to support this vulnerable population will follow.

In the Darién region, the project “Strengthening the care, integration and protection of refugees, asylum seekers and host communities in Darién, in line with the MIRPS National Action Plan, with special emphasis on children, adolescents and women,” will conclude during the first half of April.
